- ❖ Thursday, July 14, 2016 FLATBUSH, Brooklyn — a manhunt continues after two officers on patrol were shot at by a person inside a car in Brooklyn. The shooting happened around 10:45 p.m. on Ditmas Avenue and East 23rd Street within the confines of the 70th Precinct in Flatbush. The NYPD said two officers in uniform were walking their post when a dark-colored sedan with tinted windows slowly approached them and made a statement about "getting them" before firing away at uniformed officers. The vehicle occupied by four men, described as black, fled the scene, police said. Both of the officers were not hurt.

ANALYST COMMENTS:

- The recent assaults on officers nationally show that officers are being targeted during their normal course of duty. Uniformed officers in groups should be considered targets of opportunity. Officer safety recommendations currently in place by MPD Command staff, MPD Policy and Procedure, and Officer Safety best practices are highly recommended.
- With the assistance of the SCSO and the use of their Social Media Collator analysts are searching social media for specific threats to officers.
- To date MPD/OHS has put only widely published demonstrations. Starting with this submission lesser mentioned demonstrations, and boycotts are being added. There is a trend that a "boycotts" are turning into demonstrations at these business locations.

UPCOMING EVENTS WITH HIGH LE PRESENCE AND/ OR LARGE PUBLIC ATTENDANCE

- Sunday, July 24, 2016 1400-2200 hrs: A "Stop the Violence Peace Rally" at Bellevue Park (located at 1310 South Parkway). The rally organizer Jimmy Towns (901-503-9474) has applied for a permit and is expecting a crowd of 200 attendees.
